Hello!

MY STORY

I am a Multi Disciplinary artist and a creative trainer. I explore new mediums of performance and multidisciplinary arts. Part of my practice is developing different trainings and workshops using multi-disciplinary forms; working with material, installation, sounds, videos, scripts and situations.

I have a range of workshops & trainings. I also design & collaborate with institutions to come up with the best program that fits their approach. I will be glad if you reach out to collaborate in that context.

Education

FULL CV

MA Performance Making

Goldsmiths - University of London | 2013

Biography

A performance artist and theatre maker who brings together a range of practices; acting, singing, dancing, video and explores new mediums of live performance and multidisciplinary arts. Riham also have a strong record of leading theatre training programs and community projects with different organizations. Recent project was with A.M. Qattan Foundation; a cultural, arts and social engagement project in Tulkarem. Riham also developed recently more specialized workshops eg. British council "Performance and Public Spaces" and "Performance and Multidisciplinary approaches" with BIAF Festival and many others.

Workshops & Trainings

My aim is always to give participants creative freedom and empower them to express their ideas and narrating them by providing them with creative tools across a wide array of multi-disciplinary approaches.

overcome fear, and take risks.

Participants Testimonials

"Participants have been given the space and time to explore themselves (their minds) through playful and spontaneous activities. Simple activities were used to express one's feelings, ideas, emotions, at the period in time deploying different mechanisms, mediums, body gestures, and space."

Natalie Najjar - Artist

"I enjoyed the workshop so much, Riham was an excellent facilitator, she really made me feel at ease and helped me get to know my colleagues in a way I wouldn't have otherwise."

Fabia Minchilli - TdH

The workshop was better than I expected & well organized. The sequence of activities was excellent, and the duration of the activities was excellent. I already took a workshop on Stress release through drama but didn't feel such benefits.

Wafa Albalboul -YWCA
